

No. IIITK/01/05/M/2023/2854

Date : November 16, 2023

PUBLIC NOTICE

The General Public, the students and their parents are hereby informed that IIIT Kottayam is aware that a video on some unlawful Diwali celebrations within the hostel premises of the Institute has gone viral recently and attracted reporting in some printed media as well.

This is to inform all concerned that neither the IIIT Kottayam community nor its administration does not support such activities in any form and necessary enquires are initiated by the disciplinary committee and expected to generate the actions / punishments against the culprits shortly. The incident also stands reported to the law and order authorities for needful identification of the culprits and also to rule out the possibility of the involvement of anti-social elements, if any.

IIIT Kottayam officially permitted to celebrate Diwali upholding the serenity of the festival and the programmes culminated by 9.30 p.m. on 12 November 2023 in the Academic area/premises of the Institute. The footages seen in the video circulated is outside the permitted premises of official celebrations and IIIT Kottayam shall not be liable/held responsible; nor do we support such activities in future as well.

Be it known to all concerned that some people / students of IIIT Kottayam are engaged in circulating the video for the sake of mere publicity. It is also to be noted that the said incident has not caused any loss/damage to life or property in any manner.

Once the investigations is completed, to find out the level of violations in the hostel/ academic regulations in force, the needful disciplinary actions will be imposed on all those involved.
